

CHILDLESSNESS BREAKS HEARTS; BUT THROUGH SURROGACY THEY CAN BE HEALED AND DREAMS CAN COME TRUE.

Founded in 1988, COTS (Childlessness Overcome Through Surrogacy) is a non-profit organisation and has achieved over 1,000 surrogate births.

COTS is able to help initiate negotiations and compile information with a view to its use in making a surrogacy arrangement

“My surrogacy journey was amazing. To help fulfil a dream for such a loving couple was a dream come true for me. They will remain in my heart forever.”

- Sarah W, surrogate

“Thanks to surrogacy, today my heart is full of love and joy and gratitude.”

- Sarah H, Mummy through surrogacy
